

BROWNES

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to Kerry's Premier Historic Hotel.

As a proud member of Good Traditional Irish Bar, we have created this Drink menu for opening your Sense.

“There is no such thing as a bad Whiskey,
Some Whiskey just happen to be better than others”
William Faulkner

“Alcohol may be man's worst enemy,
but the bible says love your enemy.”
Frank Sinatra

“Oh, he occasionally takes an alcoholiday”
Oscar Wilde

Classic Cocktails

Caipirinha €14.50

Brazilian National Cocktail by Law, invented by landowning farmer in the county of Sao Paulo during the 19th century.

A reflection of the strong sugar cane culture in the region.

Gently muddle with Lime Wedges and Sugar Syrup & top up with Cachaca

Tom Collins €14.50

First memorialized in writing in 1876 by Jerry Thomas, "the father of American Mixology", this "Gin and Sparkling Lemonade" drink is typically served in a Collins Glass over ice.

Shake with Killarney Gin, Lemon Juice, Sugar Syrup and top up with Soda Water

Apple Martini €14.50

The drink Adam's Apple was advertised by Smirnoff in the July 1972 issue of Playboy on the inside front cover. The recipe called for an ounce or so of Smirnoff added to apple juice in a tall glass of ice.

Shake with Smirnoff Vodka, Cointreau & Apple Sour

Manhattan €14.50

Unfortunately, the origins of this cocktail remain inconclusive. However, some say the dash of mystery about its origins even adds to its appeal.

Shake with Martini Rosso, Angostura Bitter and West Cork Bourbon Cask

Mai Tai €14.50

The name was allegedly taken from maita'i, the Tahitian word for "good" or "excellence", although the drink is usually spelled as two words, sometimes hyphenated or capitalized.

Shake with Kraken Rum, Plantation Pineapple Rum, Orgeat Syrup, Orange Curacao, Lime Juice & Sugar Syrup

Full range of Classic Cocktails also available. Please ask your server.
